

Please look into Sinclairs's claim that Stolen Honor (their so-called News documentary) is legitimately real news, and not a partisan hack job on John Kerry. As American citizens we own the public airwaves and have a right to have fair and ethical journalism.